APR 20 1972

Too Risky for Teddy, Says Mrs. Kennedy

SF Examiner

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy believes it would be too risky for her son, Sen. Edward Kennedy (D-Mass.) to seek the 1972 presidential nomination.

"I think there's too much risk now . . . If he wants to, it would be much better to run a little later," she said in an article in May's Ladies' Home Journal.

"I'm sure it is Teddy's present intention not to run. I think it is a wise intention."

The mother of the late President John F. Kennedy and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy said her surviving son has "certain obligations to Ethel's (Mrs. Robert Kennedy) children and, of course, to his own children."